Now, just at this season of the year, when vacations are over and you settle down to business and put everything in slape generally, suppose that you make on inventory of your eyes. But instead of going to an inventory of your eyes. But instead of going to an inventory of your eyes. But instead of going to an equilist and spending many hours and several doilars for having an examination made go to W. H. Else HaUS, optician, and let him apply his ophthaimosope to your eyes, and he will tell you in haif a jiffy (and without charge) just what glasses you require. He will do more than that, because he can do what an ordinary epitician cannot do, and that is to give you lenses which will exactly suit each of your eyes. His place of business is at 21 Maiden lane, and there you can get glasse in every style of mounting and to suit every peculiarity of sight.

Particular attention given to ladies.
